

ADOLESCENCE EDUCATION: ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS

Adolescence brings many challenges and adjustments for students in grades 7-12. Central to the success of these students are teachers armed with the knowledge, skills and commitment to student development that, when combined, foster achievement.

To prepare teachers for careers in middle and high school education, SUNY College at Old Westbury offers two degree opportunities in Adolescence Education: English Language Arts (7-12):

- The Master of Arts in Teaching (M.A.T.) leads to initial certification for aspiring teachers and career-changers seeking to advance their careers.
- The Master of Science (M.S.) leads to professional certification, and is for those who hold initial or provisional teaching certification.
